Apprehending his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No.1935 of 2019 instituted under Sections 323, 498-A, 379, 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act, the petitioner has moved this Court for grant of privileges of anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner has treated the complainant with cruelty in connection with demand of dowry. It is submitted that the allegations against the petitioner are all false and general and omnibus in nature. It is further submitted that because of marital discord between the parties, this false case has been foisted against the petitioner. It is lastly submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to co-operate with the trial of the case and undertakes to pay ad interim victim compensation of Rs.40,000/- without prejudice to his defence in this case in favour of the complainant of this case. Hence, it is submitted that the petitioner be given the privileges of anticipatory bail.

Learned Addl.P.P appearing for the State being assisted by the learned counsel for the complainant oppose the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

Considering the submissions of learned counsels and the facts and circumstances stated above, I am inclined to grant privileges of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to surrender in the Court of learned C.J.M., Palamu within six weeks from today and in the event of his arrest or surrendering, he will be enlarged on bail on depositing a demand draft of Rs.40,000/- as ad interim victim compensation without prejudice to his defence in this case drawn in favour of the complainant of this case and on

In case the petitioner pays Rs.40,000/- to the complainant of this case, the same shall be adjusted towards maintenance, if any or full and final settlement, if any, between the parties.
